500 years of the Reformation in Spain

One tremendous blessing of co-laboring with gifted leaders around the world is sharing their joys. I just received an enthusiastic letter from the president of the Association of Evangelists of Spain in which he gifted me three stamps. Okay, so..?

All the evangelical groups of Spain had been petitioning, since September 29, 2015, La Comision Filatelica del Estado (Public Administrations) for a formal recognition of the Protestant Reformation which the whole world celebrated in 2017.

Finally, on January 14, 2019 the Spanish Commission published a postage stamp that not only commemorated 500 years of the Reformation, but also 450 years of the publication of the first Bible translated into Spanish from the original languages, la Biblia del Oso (The Bible of the Bear).

On the seal you see a painting of Casiodoro del Reina, the translator of La Biblia del Oso, mysterious hands holding up the Bible, and the words “450 años (years) de la Biblia del Oso” and V (500) Aniversario de la Reforma Protestante”. Carlos exclaims, “This (the seal) distinguishes the light of the Reformation contrasted with the darkness of Rome; and we see the Bible that for many years was persecuted, burned and prohibited.”

A powerful freedom that we in the US have taken for granted for 243 years, is becoming a reality in the land where it had been severely repressed.
