

CITA-EDU REPORT

Study Sites Distribution 2018

Dear Friends & Faithful Supporters,

The Apostle Paul reminds us that “God has given greater honor to the parts (of the Body of Christ) that lacked it” (1Corinthians 12:24). That’s why in this report we give special honor to those who administrate, organize and oversee the educational experience of the students of CITA-EDU. Typically, those who create and teach the courses, the first objective of CITA, get the accolades, but men like David Parada pictured above are credited with the application on location. David, Rick Beltran for these high tech servants of Christ who carry this unseen, but absolutely essential burden of student support and care.

their professional assistance as technicians in computer systems to matriculate students and monitor their academic progress through google platform, android windows and other programs. We praise God for these high tech servants of Christ who carry this unseen, but absolutely essential burden of student support and care.
